Heroes of the Faith

Dallas Billington (1903-1972)

Bro. Billington moved to Akron, Ohio to work for Goodyear Tire Co. He told his wife—Nell—that they would have to start a church. Why? The men he worked with drank, talked freely of their poker games, & then told him what church they belonged to.

His first converts were the men that he worked with in the factory. He began preaching on the radio. This led to an invitation to speak to a small group that was meeting at a local school. The first Sunday, 12 people showed up. One was saved, & Akron Baptist Temple was born. The year was 1934.

In 1938, the Akron Baptist Temple seated 600. The crowds were running up to 1000. The church set up bleachers & loud speakers on the lawn. A neighbor filed a complaint. The case went to court. 5,000 people showed up for the hearing. When the church was acquitted, the judge then asked Dr. Billington to say something. He had his song leader to sing "There is Power in the Blood," & then he closed in prayer.

By 1939, the church was running 1600 to 2000. At the 25th anniversary service, the church had 16,000 members & 50,000 people attended.

Dr. Billington's messages were plain, simple, to the point, & masterfully illustrated.

He always preached with the invitation in view & was used of God to win thousands of men to Christ. His compassion for people, his integrity, his spotless example as a man of God will long be remembered. Truly, he was a hero of the Faith.
